

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

I. THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

II. WE HAVE A LEGAL DUTY TO SAFEGUARD YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI)

We are legally required to protect the privacy of your health information. We call this information protected health information, or PHI for short, and it includes information that can be used to identify you that we've created or received about your past, present, or future condition, the provision of health care to you, or the payment of this health care. We must provide you with this notice about our privacy practices that explains how, when and why we and disclose your PHI. With some exceptions, we may not use or disclose any more of your PHI than is necessary to accomplish this purpose of the use or disclosure. We are legally required to follow the privacy practices that are described in this notice.

However, we reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and our privacy policies at any time. Any changes will apply to the PHI we already have. Before we make an important change to our policies, we will promptly change this notice and post new notice in the appropriate areas. You can also request a copy of this notice from the contact person listed in section VI below at any time and can view a copy of the notice on our Web site at WWW.123rehab.com.

III. HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION- We use and disclose health information for many different reasons. For some of these uses or disclosures, we need your prior consent or specific authorization. Below, we describe the different categories of our uses and disclosures and give you some examples of each category.

A. Uses and Disclosures Relating to Treatment, Payment or Health Care Operations.

1. For treatment. We may disclose your PHI to physicians, nurses, medical students, and other health care personnel who provide you with health care services or are involved in your care. For example, if you're being treated for a knee injury, we may disclose your PHI to a physical rehabilitation/pain management department in order to coordinate your care.

2. To obtain payment for treatment. We may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the treatment and services provided to you. For example, we may provide portions of your PHI to our billing department and your health plan to get paid for the health care services we provided to you. We may also provide your PHI to our business associates, such as billing companies, and others that process our health care claims.

B. Certain Uses and Disclosures Do Not Require Your Consent, We may use and disclose your PHI without your consent or authorization for the following reasons:

1. When a disclosure is required by federal, state or local law, judicial or administrative proceedings or law enforcement. For example: we make disclosures when a law requires that we report information in government agencies and law enforcement personnel about victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence; when dealing with gunshot and other wounds; i.e. when ordered in a judicial or administrative proceeding.
2. For public health activities. For example, we report information about births, deaths, and various diseases, to government officials in charge of collecting that kind of information, and we provide coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors necessary information relating to an individual's death.
3. For health oversight activities. For example, we will provide information to assist the government when it conducts an investigation or inspection of a health care provider or organization.
4. For purposes of organ donation. We may notify organ procurement organizations to assist them in organ, eye or tissue donation and transplants.
5. For research purposes. In certain circumstances, we may provide PHI in order to conduct medical research.
6. To avoid harm. In order to avoid serious threat to the health or safety of a person or the public, we may override PHI to law enforcement personnel or persons able to prevent or lessen such harm.
7. For specific government functions. We may disclose PHI of military personnel and veterans in certain situations. And we may disclose PHI for national security purposes, such as protecting the President of the United States or conducting intelligence operations.
8. For workers' compensation purposes. We may provide PHI in order to comply with workers' compensation laws.
9. Appointment reminders and health-related benefits or services. We may use PHI to provide appointment reminders or give you information about treatment alternatives, or other health care services or benefits we offer.
10. Fundraising activities. We may use phi to raise funds for our organization. The money raised through these activities is used to expand and support the health care services and educational programs to the community. If you do not wish to be contacted as part of our fundraising efforts, please contact the person listed in section VI below.

C. Two uses and Disclosures Require You to Have the Opportunity to Object.

1. Patient directories. We may include your name, location in this facility, general condition, and religious affiliation, in our patient directory for use by clergy and visitors who ask for you by name, unless you object in whole or in part. The opportunity to consent may be obtained retroactively in emergency situations.
2. Disclosures to family, friends or others. We may provide you PHI to a family member, friend or other person that you indicate is involved in your care of the payment for your health care, unless you object in whole or in part. The opportunity to consent may be obtained retroactively in emergency situations.

D. All Other uses and Disclosures Require Your Prior Written Authorization. In any other situation not described in sections III, A, B, and C above, we will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing any of your PHI. If you choose to sign an authorization to disclose your PHI you can later revoke that authorization in writing to stop any future uses and disclosures (to the extent that we haven't taken any action relying on the authorization).

IV WHAT RIGHTS YOU HAVE REGARDING YOUR PHI - You have the following rights with respect to your PHI.

- A. The right to request Limits on Uses and Disclosures of Your PHI. You have the right to ask that we limit how we use and disclose your PHI. We will consider your request but are not legally required to accept it. If we accept your request, we will put any limits in writing and abide by them except in emergency situations. You may not limit the uses and disclosures that we are legally required or allowed to make.
- B. The Right to Choose How We Send PHI to You. You have the right to ask that we send information to you an alternate address (for example, sending information to your work address rather than your home address) or by alternate means (for example, e-mail instead of regular mail), we must agree to your request so long as we can easily provide it in the format you requested.
- C. The right to See and Get Copies of Your PHI. In most cases, you have the right to look at or get copies of your PHI that we have, but you must make the request in writing. If we don't have your PHI but we know who does we will tell you how to get it. We will respond to you within 30 days after receiving your written request. In certain situations, we may deny your request. If we do, we will tell you, in writing, our reasons for the denial and explain your right to have the denial reviewed. If you request copies of your PHI, there will be a charge based on the state and federal regulations.
- D. The Right to Get a List of the Disclosures We Have Made. You have the right to get a list to which we have released your PHI. The list will not include uses or disclosures that you have already consented to, such as those made for treatment, payment, or health care operations, directly to you, to your family, or in our facility directory. The list also won't include uses and disclosures made for national security purposes, to corrections or law enforcement personnel or before April 14, 2003. We will respond within 60 days of receiving your request. The list we will give you will include releases made up to the last six years. The list will include the date of the release, to which PHI was released (including their address, if known), a description of the information released, and the reason for the release. We will provide the list to you at no charge, but if you make more than one request in the same year, we will charge you in accordance with state and federal regulations.
- E. The Right to Correct Your PHI. If you believe that there is a mistake in your PHI of that a piece of important information is missing you have the right to request that we correct the existing information or add the missing information. You must provide the request and your reason for the request in writing. We will respond within 60 days of receiving your request. We may deny your request in writing if the PHI is (i) correct and complete, (ii) not created by us, (iii) not allowed to be disclosed, or (iv) not part of our records. Our written denial will state the reasons for the denial and explain your right to file a written statement of disagreement with the denial. If you do not request a statement of disagreement, you have the right to request and that your request and our denial be attached to all future disclosures of your PHI. If we approve your request, we will make the change to your PHI, tell you that we have done it, and tell others that need to know about the change to your PHI>
- F. The Right to Get This Notice by E-Mail. You have the right to get a copy of this notice by e-mail. Even if you have agreed to receive notice via e-mail, you also have the right to request a paper copy of this notice.

V. HOW TO COMPLAIN ABOUT OUR PRIVACY PRACTICES. If you think that we may have violated your privacy rights, or disagree with a decision we made about access to your PHI, you may file a complaint with the person listed in Section VI, below. You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington D.C. 20201. We will take no retaliatory action against you if you file a complaint about our privacy practices.

VI. PERSON TO CONTACT FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THIS NOTICE OR TO COMPLAIN ABOUT OUR PRIVACY PRACTICES
