

Oral Review checklist

Please note that according to Certification guidelines. This test in my opinion shall ask certain things of you concerning your ability to implement the Active model accordingly in your patients. For this purpose it is important to remember, memorize and put to work the guidelines given you in the past. Attached is a sheet of major relationships, terms and guidelines to remember. Also attached is a check off sheet for you to prepare you documents and sample file appropriately.

	Check off List
History Form/s	PI, WC, General
Risk AQuestionnaire/s	Health Risk
Outcome Measures	Par-Q, Waddell, Oswestry, Vernon Mior, Visual Analogue, Borg Pain Scale (minimum)
Initial Acute Eval Form	Local Exam and Systems Review
Acute Treatment Plan	5 factors of healing Pre- Reactivation and In-house Re-activation exercise sheets with instructions DDX sheet
Outside Referral Sheet	Specialty Referral Education Letter for patient Chiro Importance, Welcome to office, introduction to Rehab, Why Rehab, Congratulation letters, etc.
Passive Model Chart Note	SOAP, with itemized settings list and response Therapy Prescription Sheet (Change as patients findings require) Modality Usage sheet, settings etc
Re-Eval	Expanded Ortho-Neuro Exam form
Quantitative Score Sheets	FCE, PAE, MMT
Therapeutic Tx Plan	Active Model Forms (Stage I, II, III, Home care) Diagnosis sheet with modifiers Letters of updated status (Dx, Tx, Rx, short term and long term goals)
Active Model Chart Note	SOAP, with itemized FIT sections for the plan (Exercise, Sets, Reps, Settings, Response, Plan)
Findings Flow Sheet	Major Template for all activities patient follows with time frames (Evals, Outcomes, Therapy Rx's, graduation dates, referrals, release, limitations etc.)

Education Material, Advertising Material, Promotional Material can be included as well.

Rules to Live by: Answer the question asked. Do not offer up any information unless you are absolutely sure you know all about it.

- Know Graduation Guidelines
- Know the exercises and therapies you use
- Know major contraindications

See you there